KATY PERRY - CANDY WORLD

The mannequins are in a crazy bubble gum world. It’s all clouds, fluffy, candy. It’s extravagant. All the mannequins are in intense dance postures, some in the hair as if they were dancing and flying. The guys pulls a string, and a « Candy cool » sign comes in, in the shape of a pink cloud, and balloons of all colors fall from the ceiling.

PUPPETEER

A backdrop of hold theater, a constructed little stage in front. Like a retro puppeteer show. All mannequins have strings. The girl has string attached to her arms and legs, and as she moves, like a one man band, she pulls strings that gives a little move to each mannequin (the head, one arm...). Think of Macauley Culkin in Home Alone activating cardboard Michael Jordan and mannequins to pretend the house is crowded.
